
ALLISON J. STUART

A/Assistant Deputy Minister, Public Health Division

In her current role as A/Assistant Deputy Minister, Allison is responsible for managing the strategic and day-to-day operations of the Public Health Division in the Ministry of Health and Long Term Care. Prior to her appointment, Allison held the position of Director, Emergency Management Unit, a branch that she took from inception to its current status within the Ministry and broader health sector in Ontario and beyond. Allison has been very engaged at the national level and chairs/co-chairs several federal/provincial/territorial committees.

Allison was the Ministry's Executive Lead during SARS. Within the Ministry, her responsibilities have included: Director, Hospitals Branch; Director of Central Region; and Administrator, Queen Street Mental Health Centre. Prior to entering the Ministry, Allison held senior management positions within community and academic acute care hospitals as well as teaching both clinical and management nursing.