

BIOGRAPHY

Norma Wood

Norma Wood is a health administrator with 25 years of health care experience in Nova Scotia and Alberta. She has held strategic and operational leadership roles in such diverse areas as Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, community rehabilitation services, learning and development, health service design, emergency preparedness and wellness. Norma is currently the senior lead for Employee Wellness for Alberta Health Services.